

A Bill to End the War on Terror and Aid Affected Nations

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 SECTION 1. The War on Terror shall officially end, hereby halting any U.S. attacks on 3 nations suspected to affiliate with Islamist terrorist groups. $30 billion in 4 total will be sent to aid the countries that were damaged during the War 5 on Terror: $10 billion to Yemen, $10 billion to Syria, and $10 billion to 6 Iraq.

7 SECTION 2. A. The War on Terror is an international military campaign issued by the 8 United States following the 9/11 attack which led to the destruction of 9 countries such as Afghanistan, the Philippines, Syria, Yemen, and Somalia.
10 B. Islamist terrorist groups such as Al-Qaeda and ISIS are militant groups 11 that twist and exploit Islam to justify their violent acts.

12 SECTION 3. The Department of War will ensure the U.S. remains in a state of 13 neutrality with the mentioned countries. The Department of State will 14 ensure that the foreign aid is administered to the three countries of 15 Yemen, Syria, and Iraq.

16 SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on passing. All laws in conflict with this 17 legislation are hereby declared null and void.
