USX R1: US Politics

USX R2: Economic Issues

USX R3: Energy & Environment

USX R4: Social Issues (Ed & Health)

IX R1: East & Southeast Asia

IX R2: Africa & Central & South Asia

IX R3: The Americas & Europe

IX R4: Southwest Asia

There shall be two divisions: International and National. National topics will cover U.S. domestic and U.S. foreign policy. International topics will cover the domestic affairs of foreign countries and the foreign affairs of all countries, including the United States.

At the 3A State Tournament, during registration, students will indicate whether they will select from envelopes containing National topics or the envelopes containing International topics. This selection will apply to all rounds of competition in which the competitor participates (i.e. a student may not select from National topics for some of the rounds and International topics for other rounds).
