

Impromptu at CHSAA 3A States

All competitors will go to the Impromptu Prep Room when the round is called. Please bring a pen or pencil. Attendance will be taken. All students will be given one 3x5 notecard. Competitors will pick one slip of paper out of an envelope. That piece of paper will have three (3) bullet points typed on it. The three bullet points will include a word, a phrase, and a question/statement. In the Impromptu Prep Room, the competitors will have five (5) minutes to create a speech. They may write on the notecard. They will not be able to bring or use the internet or any outside materials to assist the creation of their speech. After five (5) minutes, the competitor will be released to go to their competition room. In the competition room, the competitor will deliver a 3–5-minute speech to the judge. After concluding their speech, the competitor will return to the common area.

An example of a slip of paper:

- Bumble
- Living on the edge
- Should convicted prisoners be allowed to access the internet while in prison?
