

A Resolution to Amend the Constitution to Recognize International Courts

1 RESOLVED, By two-thirds of the Congress here assembled, that the following article
2 is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States,
3 which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution
4 when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states
5 within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

6 ARTICLE --

7 SECTION 1: The United States of America shall recognize the authority
8 of United Nations-backed International Courts and 9 tribunals as binding above Appellate and District Courts of 10 the United States but below the Supreme Court of the 11 United States.

12 SECTION 2: The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by 13 appropriate legislation.
